Competitor Information

Venue: Quercus Park

- Quercus Park is on Oaks Rd, Carrick. This venue is made available by Rural Youth Tasmania, please leave the grounds in perfect condition, we are very thankful for the use of the site.
- Entry will be via the main gate.
- Please take home all your hay and manure, grass seed is available on the NTEC show jump trailer if your horse has dug up around your float.

Entry – Open to all TEA (NTEC/STEA/NWEA members), membership forms are included. Riders competing in EVA 80cm and above also require an EA membership.

Toilets are available to the eastern side of the horse arena.

Water is limited, some water is available from water tanks around the site, not recommended for human consumption.

Warm up areas – Large warm up area for all phases located in the ‘back car park’ past the dog/SJ arena. Smaller area available alongside the dog/SJ arena for rider’s next due to compete. Please be respectful of other competitors and follow marshalls’ instructions.

Rules - This event will be run under the Equestrian Australia Eventing Rules.

Dress – Competition dress and presentation preferred. Neat attire permitted for new members.

Ground pack up – Riders please note, cross-country portables need to be unpegged and removed from the arena to preserve the turf. Please assist where possible. Suggest that riders bring a cordless drill, or small tow strap to assist.

Presentations will be held once dressage arenas and jumping course have been packed away.
