

EQUESTRIAN
AUSTRALIA

Do you want to take Stewarding seriously? STEWARDING COURSES

Venue: Tasmanian Equestrian Centre, Lauderdale

Sunday 23 October 2016

Stewarding Seminar for all disciplines

Registration and coffee 9am for 9.30am start
Presenter Chris Wallis will talk about the work of stewards at events so you can choose the discipline that you want to work in:

- To help create a level playing field for all Athletes.
- Most importantly, to ensure that the welfare of the horse is respected.

In addition to attending this seminar, in order to become accredited as an EA national steward, candidates also need to sit a short Open Rule Book Test (ORBT) and accreditation.

Contact the event organisers for more information (details below).

COST:

Includes a certificate of attendance, EA Steward vest upon completion of accreditation, and course participant material.

- Promotion to National Steward - $70
- Steward Refresher - $40
- Observer - $50

Expressions of interest are available through the course organiser:

Suzanne Betts phone 0428 674 790 or chimo@netspace.net.au

OR

Di Saunders, EA ph. 02 8762 7706 or di.saunders@equestrian.org.au